The heart always knows . . .

Love notes. How can something so delicate be so difficult at the same time? Expressions of the heart have always and will always be the richest part of life, on any level and in any language.

Arguably, love is ever-present in some form or another and is the most consistent element at work throughout our lives. In the arts, it surrounds us with instrumental and vocal music, reaches us through relatable stage characters, resonates in poetic prose, and draws us in with brush strokes and quiet reflection. There's little wonder why — like the arts, love is a shared experience.

This evening's performance of Fort Wayne Ballet's Love Notes explores the richness and resilience of love in all its many forms: new love, mature love ... love found, love lost ... playful love, pondering love. What we love most is that you have chosen to share this experience with us. Please enjoy!

Our Spring Season (of this, our 65th year!) has brought us a fresh enthusiasm. On March 11 and 12, we celebrate Fort Wayne Ballet's ongoing commitment to this community and the world of dance with our Sapphire Soirée and a new Celebration Series — the festivities surrounding this weekend are a "must-see." Please join us!

The much-anticipated The Sleeping Beauty is happening April 22-24, followed in May with excerpts of Romeo & Juliet — both of these performances in collaboration with Fort Wayne Philharmonic. Please check our website and social media for details to come.

For our young and young-at-heart dance patrons, we have two delightful performances of Alice in Wonderland (February 26) and Ferdinand the Bull (April 30) on stage at the University of Saint Francis North Auditorium. Since starting this Family Series of short works, we are consistently as charmed by the audiences as they are with the performances! We hope to see you there.

Finally, a note of gratitude to every one of our patrons, parents, dancers, and instructors. We're in challenging times, but together, we are making a notably positive difference through dance. Collectively, we will continue to engage and empower others to know the importance of the arts. Thank you for joining us on this journey!

About Gerald Arpino's RUTH, Ricordi per Due

RUTH, Ricordi per Due was choreographed by Gerald Arpino, who became the Artistic Director of the Joffrey Ballet after Mr. Joffrey passed away in 1988. Arpino had been the resident choreographer of the Joffrey since 1961. RUTH premiered in 2004.

RUTH was Mr. Arpino's final choreographic creation before he passed away in 2008.

RUTH, Ricordi per Due means "Ruth, memories of you." It was commissioned by Barbara Levy Kipper in honor of her mother, Ruth, both being huge dance advocates, supporters and gracious friends of Mr. Arpino and the Joffrey Ballet.

The music was one of Arpino's favorites; the very familiar Albinoni Adagio in G minor. He was saving it for something special and felt that this duet was the perfect occasion to use it.

Arpino was known for his use of the torso and back, how the feet moved on the floor, and swirling movement and speed; but he was probably at his best in intimate and poignant pas de deux work. The intricate and difficult lifts, the rich movement quality, intimacy and simple sensuality of RUTH shows Arpino at his finest.

This piece is about love, loss, and grief; a personal and soulful, sweet memory. As it was being choreographed, RUTH became very personal to Mr. Arpino who had numerous losses in his life — namely his life companion, James Howell, and certainly Mr. Joffrey himself.

He also created the piece on two dancers, Maia Wilkins and Willy Shives, with whom he had worked often. They had done many Arpino ballets, but he had never created on them. It became a very special time in working with them to discover the soul, the artistry and the meaning that went into the creation of RUTH.

Each couple brings their own life experience, their love, passion, and memories into the piece to make it individual and to continue to resonate as time progresses.

RUTH, Ricordi per Due is remembered as one of Arpino's gems.

* The performance of RUTH, Ricordi per Due, an Arpino ballet, is presented with the permission of The Gerald Arpino Foundation and has been produced in accordance with the Foundation service standards established and provided by the Foundation. World Premiere: May 4, 2004, at the Auditorium Theater in Chicago, Illinois.

CAMERON BASDEN

GUEST RÉPÉTITEUR

Cameron Basden is an artistic director, creative strategist, dance influencer and former professional ballerina internationally recognized for building a brand empire within the dance industry. She is the Co-Founder & Artistic Director of Miami Dance Hub, a non-profit organization founded in South Florida to unite, educate, equip, excite and support professional/non-professional dancers in maximizing their potential, influence and opportunities. Cameron has lived and breathed the dance industry for 20+ years. After a successful performing career with the Joffrey Ballet, Cameron served as ballet master and co-associate director of that company and director of dance at Interlochen Center for the Arts. Cameron was a muse for Gerald Arpino in the creation of his ballets and danced in a variety of styles by many noted choreographers. She stages ballets as répétiteur all over the globe.
